

ARMS CONFERENCE POWERS DECLARE OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

WILL DO AWAY WITH SPHERES OF INFLUENCE IN ORIENTAL REPUBLIC

IT IS ALSO REPORTED THAT JAP-
PAN'S 21 DEMANDS WILL BE CONSIDERED

(By A. L. BRADFORD)
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 17.—The powers in the Washington conference today had pledged themselves to the "open door" in China.

It was learned by the United Press that the delegates of the nine powers in the secret session of the far eastern committee last night approved a resolution of declarations of the American government solemnly reaffirming the "open door" policy in China.

This declaration is understood to be the most sweeping and definite promise ever given by the nations of the world to observe the policy of the open door. Definite announcement that the resolutions is broader than the Hay open door declarations, that it is intended to abolish spheres of influence in China and that it broadens and defines the Root declarations already made, came from a Chinese delegate. At the same time he and an American delegate announced that Japan's twenty-one demands will be considered by the conference.

AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOWN LIVING WELL

MORE GOODS BOUGHT AT LOWER
PRICES IN 1921 THAN IN 1920,
INQUIRY REVEALS

New York, Jan. 17.—Notwithstanding the general impression that the consuming public has been abstaining from buying, the January review of retail trade now completed by the National Retail Dry Goods Association, demonstrates that for months past the American people have been buying more, at lower prices—in fact, have been living much more generously than they did in the latter part of 1920.

In November, 1921, retail trade fell off 13.7 per cent in gross value as compared with November, 1920, but prices declined to far greater extent, in typical dry goods staples more than one-third and in many other instances as much as 40 per cent. The 13.7 per cent reduction in gross value of sales, considering the very much greater reduction in merchandise prices, represents almost double the volume of goods purchased by the consumer for November, 1921, as compared with November, 1920.

In December retail stores in many large centers of population reported sales values as well as sales volume in excess of December, 1920.

Figures of exceptional interest have been assembled in connection with the distribution of the gross value of retail trade for November, 1921, as compared with that of November, 1919, when public extravagance in expenditure was at its height. The decline in gross value of sales for December, 1921, as compared with November, 1919, for 145 selected department stores throughout the United States was 4.5 per cent, while the four leading mail order houses suffered a decrease of 63.8 per cent. Increases are recorded for several other classes of retail enterprise, 10 chains of grocery stores gaining 15.6 per cent; five drug store chains gaining 19.1 per cent; four 5 and 10 cent chains, 22 per cent, and three cigar store chains, 23.1 per cent.

The relatively slight decrease sustained by the department stores is attributed to their facilities for showing goods, their adherence to the policy of extensive advertising, and their general response, even at the cost of large direct losses, to the popular demand for lowered prices, a policy which resulted in public confidence and very marked good will. The astounding decline in mail order trade is attributed to inherent inability to show goods, combined with restriction of purchasing power in rural districts.

All of the labor members of the British House of Commons are countermen.

(By United Press)
Madison, Wis., Jan. 17.—Pittsburgh plus methods of fixing element prices were defied by the state of Wisconsin when the state highway commission refused all bids for the one million three hundred thousand barrels of cement needed in 1922 road building programs.

"We must have a lower price," said A. R. Hirst, state highway commissioner in announcing that all bids turned in by the cement manufacturers were "too high."

WHY MOVIE MAG- NATES CAN AFFORD TO PAY $150,000

UPLIFTING OF THE MOVIE DRAMA
MAY BE INCLOSED BUT MORE
PROFIT THE REASON

CONSOLIDATION OF LARGE AND SMALL CONCERNS TO PREVENT
DUPLICATION WILL TURN
THE TRICK

By HUGH BAILEY
(Copyright 1922 by United Press.)

New York, Jan. 17.—This is the inside story of why the moving picture magnates can afford to pay Will Hays $150,000 a year.

All the altruistic and uplifting purposes attributed to the movie may probably be endorsed by the true story of the extremely practical business men behind one of the biggest of America's industries.

The masters of the moving picture business expect that Will Hays by harmonizing the industry's business will save for them, and therefore in effect determine for them ten times his salary.

That is why they were able to induce Hays to give up his position as postmaster general in the cabinet of President Harding to become the "Landis of the movie."

The explanation is in the fact that the great trouble with the moving picture business at present is duplication of sale. There are perhaps five hundred big financially responsible moving picture theatres in the country, but there are twelve thousand smaller theatres which constitute the bulk of the business. These smaller theatres in order to get the big features from various companies, contract annually for far more pictures than they can use. They pay for only the picture they can use, and big producers are helpless. They cannot collect for the unshown picture in many cases without actually closing up the small theatre, which is the last thing they desire to do. The loss in 1921 on unshown pictures let from fifteen to thirty per cent of the entire contracted business of some of the largest concerns.

With the annual business running over one hundred million dollars, this would be a loss of over fifteen million dollars, and a saving of a very small percentage; in fact, one per cent of the salary of the former postmaster general.

More than 2,000 reported they could cite instances in their own practice where unnecessary suffering had resulted from enforcement of the prohibition law, while 7,732 stated no such cases had occurred in their communities.

The majority declared physicians should be restricted in prescribing whisky, beer and wine, the replies being 5,334 for and 4,496 against. In New York, New Hampshire, Maryland and the District of Columbia, the majority favored being allowed to use their own judgment in prescribing, but in all other states they were opposed.

URGES SUPPORT OF MERCHANT MARINE

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, Jan. 17.—"We need ships." This was the cry of the lumber men of the northwest today. Development of trade propose that immediate steps to make American merchant marines first of the seas, according to Major E. C. Griggs, president of the St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber company of Tacoma, Wash.

"The smaller manufacturers all over the great country can be of great practical assistance in the great work of developing foreign trade by strongly advocating and supporting such legislation as is necessary to develop our merchant marine," he said, addressing the thirty-second annual convention of the Northwest Lumber Men's Association.

Charles Marckers, of Perry, Iowa, president of the Northwest Lumber Men's Association will deliver his annual address late today.

BANDITS STEAL $12,000 PAY ROLL SHOOT MESSENGERS

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Two bank messengers were wounded today in a battle with four bandits who escaped with a $12,000 pay roll for the Ward Packing company.

The messengers from the Citizens Trust and Savings bank, a south side institution, were enroute to the Ward Plant in an auto when the bandits car pulled up alongside and forced them to turn into the curb and stop. As soon as the bank car stopped, four foreigners jumped from the bandit car and started firing without warning. Anthony Koefoot was shot three times, and critically wounded. Joseph Ross was hurt, by one bullet, but not seriously.

Mines Idle 9 Months At Butte Reopened

Butte, Mont., Jan. 17.—Mining in Butte resumed yesterday, after a shut-down which began April 1 last. A cut of 50 cents per day in wages goes into effect.

Resumption of mining means that the smelters in Great Falls and Anaconda will also start up, lumbering in the west end becomes normal, and several soft coal camps will become busy. In addition, general conditions throughout the entire state will be affected favorably.

It is estimated that, in normal times, the mining industry employs 20,000 to 25,000 people, almost all men. Through acquisition of the American Brass company, the Anaconda Copper Mining company, the chief Montana operator, is assured a stable market for its entire output, it is said.

PHYSICIANS DIVIDE ON WHISKY BENEFIT

REPLIES FAVORABLE BY LESS THAN 12 TO 11—BEER AND WINE OPPOSED

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Physicians of 33 states and the District of Columbia, replying to questionnaires sent out by the Journal of the American Medical Association, divided almost equally on the question of whether whisky is a necessary therapeutic agent in the practice of medicine.

The vote was in favor of whisky but by less than a 12 to 11 ratio, while beer was declared unnecessary by a 3 to 1 majority and wine was opposed by 2 to 1. Restrictions in prescribing whisky were favored 13 to 9.

Figures for 14 states and the District of Columbia were made public last night, returns from 19 other states previously having been announced.

The figures showed that out of 10,304 questionnaires returned by physicians in 14 states, including Minnesota, Nevada, and Wisconsin, 5,577 declared whisky was a necessary therapeutic agent and 4,641 stated they found it of no value. New York physicians were of no value. New York physicians were of no value. New York physicians were of no value.

Wine found more friends than beer. A total of 6,255 physicians said they were opposed to the use of wine, while only 3,797 replied "yes." The figures on the beer question showed 7,196 opposed and 2,902 in favor.

More than 2,000 reported they could cite instances in their own practice where unnecessary suffering had resulted from enforcement of the prohibition law, while 7,732 stated no such cases had occurred in their communities.

The majority declared physicians should be restricted in prescribing whisky, beer and wine, the replies being 5,334 for and 4,496 against. In New York, New Hampshire, Maryland and the District of Columbia, the majority favored being allowed to use their own judgment in prescribing, but in all other states they were opposed.

Replies also had been received from 19 other states, including Idaho, Iowa, Michigan and North Dakota.

The result was as follows for Minnesota and Wisconsin:

MINNESOTA

"The facts about the murder have never come out," she said. "I will tell the truth about the whole affair, and I shall be acquitted on the first ballot."

Burch today paid his respects to the two women jurors who for 72 hours stood firm against the majority vote to convict him and finally succeeded late yesterday in having the jury dispatched.

"Two women who never weakened for 72 hours that stood against the fact. It is a great and terrible feeling to know your fate is held in the soft palm of a woman," said Burch.

ARBUCKLE SAYS HE IS INNOCENT— FEARS LOSS OF LOVE

FAT COMEDIAN DON'T FEAR
PRISON OR LOSS OF FAME—
LOSS OF ESTEEM IS WHAT HURTS

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—"It is not prison I am afraid of. It is not the loss of fame or fortune. It is the loss of regard; the loss of affection; it is the fact that the kids may think I am guilty, that hurts me."

Roscoe Arbuckle, on trial for the second time charged with taking the life of Virginia Rappe, was speaking.

Smoking a cigarette in the corridor, outside the court room he talked for the first time since his arrest. While he talked, Minta Durfee, his attractive wife stood patiently by, waiting for the interview to end, and beside them was Gavin McNab, his attorney.

"I am innocent," Arbuckle began slowly. "All I ask is a square deal," he went on.

Blowing a ring of blue tobacco smoke which he followed contemptuously with his eyes as it floated away—"All I want is for the public to withhold judgment until a jury of twelve men and women has decided whether or not I am guilty."

"I have suffered the tortures of hell since I was arrested. The thought that some people might have believed that I was guilty of causing the death of that poor girl was torment."

"Bound by silence in the past, I had to face the accusations night and day without answering, for the sole reason that all evidence in the case and the reported statements of witnesses were purposely twisted and turned so as to injure me, and my attorneys were certain that the same would happen to anything I might say."

Fatty hesitatingly dropped his cigarette, crunched it beneath his foot, and then started rolling another.

"Why, the women and children of the world were my audience," he went on. "I made them laugh, I made them happy. They liked Fatty of the films."

"No, it is not the loss of fame or fortune. It is the loss of regard, loss of affection, the fact that the kids of the world may think I am guilty that hurts me."

"In my heart I feel that the American people are fair, and that after a full hearing has been had in this case, I am not going to lose their esteem."

Jury is Completed

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—Evidence in the Roscoe Arbuckle manslaughter trial, growing out of the death of Virginia Rappe, will begin this afternoon.

A jury composed of eleven men and one woman with one woman and man as an alternate juror, was completed late yesterday.

Today the jury had the morning hour to settle personal affairs preparatory to being locked up during the taking of testimony.

WOULD EXPELL L'FOLLETTE FROM REPUBLICAN PARTY

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL ENEM-
IES SEEK TO HAVE SENATOR
OUSTED FROM PARTY
COUNSEL

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 17.—Expulsion of Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, from the Republican party is sought by his political and personal enemies.

They want the senator officially thrown out of the G. O. P. majority and figuratively if not literally, set out in the middle of the Senate aisle as "a man without a party."

At a recent meeting of the republican committee on committees, a motion was made that LaFollette be expelled from the party. This was to be one by dropping him from all the senate committees of which he is now a member, and excluding him from the republican conference, that is, the secret meeting of all senate republicans to determine party policies on legislation.

EQUITY EXCHANGE STOCKHOLDERS MEET

PRESIDENT ANDERSON IN AD-DRESS TO STOCKHOLDERS RE-
SENT BEING SUSPENDED

BY U. S. GRAIN
GROWERS

(By United Press.)

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 17.—Widening the breach between the Equity Cooperative Exchange and the U. S. Grain Growers, Incorporated, was began today.

J. M. Anderson, president of the Equity who recently slipped with the directors of the Grain Growers, briefly alluded to the differences which arose, in his annual address to the Equity stockholders late today.

Anderson will go into details when he reads an open letter at Friday's meeting.

It was reported today J. E. Kelly, Equity executive from South Dakota has prepared a set of resolutions on the matter, to be introduced on the convention floor later. Anderson resented the announcement by the Grain Growers directors in Chicago that he had been suspended as vice president of their organization.

"I mailed my irrevocable resignation to the Grain Growers on December 20th," he said. "Three weeks after I was advised that my resignation had not been accepted, but that I had been suspended."

"The Equity Cooperative Exchange not only has survived but has grown substantially in the last year," said Anderson in his annual address.

"While many other grain and live stock organizations in the same market on which the Equity has operated have failed, and many farm elevators have gone into bankruptcy, the Equity has made a profit," he said.

Develops Into War

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 17.—Differences of the Equity Cooperative Exchange and the U. S. Grain Growers Incorporated, developed into a war late today.

Directors of the Equity in their report to the stockholders convention recommended that the Equity members refuse to sign a grain delivery contract with the grain growers "until they have proven their friendliness."

Simultaneously it was indicated the Equity may join grain exchanges and operate entirely independently of the Grain Growers.

The Equity will decide probably within the next two days whether to join some grain exchange or not. Benjamin Drake, Attorney for the Equity and J. M. Anderson, president, advised against joining the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce. Both said some advantages might be gained by joining the Duluth Board of Trade which they said "has never shown the hostility manifested by the Minneapolis Chamber."

LIONS ARE TO AID IN RELIEF OF POOR

Give a Benefit Performance of Wanda Hawley in "The Outside Woman" Friday, January 20

AT THE NEW PARK THEATRE
There is Only One Laugh in Whole Play and That is From Start to Finish

Brainerd Lions will give a benefit performance of Wanda Hawley in "The Outside Woman" at the New Park theatre on Friday evening, January 20. There is only one laugh in this whole play, and that is from start to finish. All types of fun-makers are in this new Hawley picture.

"Every race has an original and distinctive sense of humor and all of its own," says a well known sociological expert.

That is why minstrel shows are always popular, and why certain colored actors, like Bert Williams, have enjoyed a very special vogue.

And hence it is that in "The Outside Woman," which is at the Park theatre Friday, January 20, two comedians famous among their own people are seen in support of the star, Wanda Hawley.

The pair in question are Thea Jasper, a colored young woman, famous on the concert and vaudeville stage long before she entered pictures, and Misao Seki, one of the most popular if all Japanese leading men both in his own country and with Japanese audiences in West Coast cities.

Let it not be thought, however, that Miss Jasper and Mr. Seki are known only among their respective races. Comedy business distinctively "darker" in one case and Oriental in the other has been contributed by them to many American film dramas in which they have appeared in support of well-known stars.

For instance, Miss Jasper has played a colored maid in at least fifty film plays—always when the part has funny situations connected with it. She will be particularly remembered for her work in "The Strange Boarder" with Will Rogers; "Miss Hobbs" with Miss Hawley; "The Man Who Had Everything," with Jack Pickford and "The Ladder" with Ethel Clayton.

In like manner Mr. Seki has played for some time with Sessuo Hayakawa in some of that artist's biggest hits. He has also translated into Japanese and acted the "heavies" of "Madame X," "Arizona" and others.

GOLDEN WEDDING WAS CELEBRATED

Anniversary of Brainerd Couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawrence Observed in Tacoma, Wash.

AND WITH FAMILY REUNION
House Was a Holiday Bower of Bright Poinsettias and Mistletoe and Chrysanthemums

(From Tacoma, Wash., Daily Paper)

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawrence of Brainerd, Minn., holiday visitors in Tacoma, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage Monday, December 26, with a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hall, a son-in-law and daughter, who live at 310 East 29th street. The joy of the golden anniversary was made complete by the attendance in an unbroken circle of all their children and grandchildren, several of whom came from distant cities to share in the notable occasion. The reunion was also especially happy in the presence of three nieces of the 50-year bride and bridegroom, who were at the wedding in 1871. Of the three two were from Seattle—Mrs. G. M. Dow and Mrs. E. Prior. The third, Mrs. E. S. Hall, came from Randall, Minn.

The house was a holiday bower of bright poinsettias and mistletoe relieved in color by the addition of golden chrysanthemums massed in shining greens. Appropriate recitations and music added interest to the gathering—especially a jolly old French song by Mr. Lawrence in a mellow bass voice, and two of the older ballads—"Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "The Old Grey Bonnet" effectively sung by O. J. Henning. Informal visiting and the recalling of times long passed gave special interest to a day of cherished memories, which an elaborate and beautifully appointed anniversary dinner completed in perfect manner. At the places golden wedding bells with napes and anniversary dates lettered in gold were fitting souvenirs. Crowning the holiday table a huge wedding cake, iced and wreathed in holly, was decorated with 50 golden candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence's sons and daughters present with their families, were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawrence of Livingston, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawrence of Duluth, Minn., accompanied by their son Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hall, their daughter Madge and son Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Henning with sons, Donald and Robert, whose homes are in Tacoma. There were 55 in the party of family relatives and old friends. BILLIARD PARLOR

Walsh & Anderson Acquire Place at 620 Front Street, To Conduct Five Tables

Thomas Walsh and Henry Anderson have formed a partnership and have acquired the billiard rooms at 620 Front street. They will conduct four pool tables and a billiard table. Among the changes contemplated is converting the basement into a first class gymnasium with a sixteen foot ring for sparring and wrestling, bleachers for spectators numbering 100; punching bags, heavy bag, weights, shower baths, and an automatic dummy, with plenty of room for rope skipping and shadow boxing.

The whole location, basement and main floor, is to be repainted and decorated. Mr. Walsh was formerly a Northern Pacific fireman and Mr. Anderson formerly worked for the Northwestern Bell Telephone company. They have hosts of friends who are assured they will be successful in their new venture.

NEW TRIAL GRANTED

Judge B. F. Wright Allows Same in Case George H. Gardner Vs Brainerd Publishing Co.

Judge B. F. Wright of the district court granted the motion of the plaintiff for a new trial in the case of George H. Gardner vs. Brainerd Publishing Company. The action is one for rent, plaintiff claiming defendant owes him about $300 back rent. Defendant admitted owing plaintiff some rent but put in a counter claim for damages claiming the premises were insufficiently heated and that it thereby sustained damages in the sum of $500.

The case was first tried in the municipal court without a jury and the court found for the plaintiff in the full amount of his claim and found against defendant on its counter claim for damages. Defendant appealed to the district court where it was tried and the jury sought to offset one claim against the other. Plaintiff was given a new trial then and upon a second trial in the district court the jury sought to do the thing in a little different way. Judge Wright granted the motion for a new trial on the ground that there was a insufficiency of the evidence to sustain such a verdict.

The year 1922 will see but two eclipses, which is the minimum number for any year.

STANDARDIZED DUTIES

We must have a uniform standard of valuation, or one as nearly so as possible, if we are to have a protective tariff—that is, a tariff equal to the difference in the cost of production in this and competing countries. No standard of valuation could be devised based on the fluctuating exchange prevailing in Europe at this time. On such a basis the duty on a bill of goods would be assessed at so much today, and a different rate tomorrow. The American dollar now and for some time to come appears to be the only reliable yard stick in measuring values. To measure them in the mark, the lire, the franc, the yen, or the pound, would be to use as many gutta-percha rulers in assessing valuations, and such a system would demoralize the customs administration to a degree that would ruin its efficiency.

Moreover, present exchange conditions provide methods of gross undervaluation of imports, a practice which is said to be growing under the present system. It is far less difficult to determine the average American value of articles like those imported, than to base that valuation on alleged foreign costs. The American valuation simplifies the collection of proper duties and puts a stop to undervaluation.

RAILROADS INSURE EMPLOYE

The announcement that the Delaware & Hudson railroad company has taken out group life and permanent disability insurance for all its employees who have been on its payrolls six months or more indicates, in the opinion of the public press, that many railroads of the country may soon insure their employees. Large insurance underwriters say that other railroads are negotiating for similar protection for their employees.

Each Delaware & Hudson employee of two years' standing was insured for $500, and those in the service six months, but less than two years, for $250, the company to pay the entire cost, and the men to select their own beneficiaries.

GROUP GOVERNMENT

Whenever there is a commission of any kind to be appointed by a president or a governor a clamor is at once raised for "recognition" of this or that group or interest by some one who belongs to it. Always it seems to be necessary to appease an organization, or several organizations, in this way.

The practice is entirely wrong. All public servants should be representative of all of the people and not of part of them. This truth is recognized by President Harding, and in making appointments to various important public bodies he has steadily refused to allow any other consideration to weigh except fitness and ability to perform impartial services.

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE

The construction of Diesel engines is to be taken up by the Bethlehem Steel Company at its yards in San Francisco. Already such engines are being built in the east. In their development the American merchant marine will place itself in position to compete far more successfully with foreign rivals. The space occupied by boilers is made available for cargo when the Diesel engine is installed, and the motive power of the ship weighs far less. Both factors contribute materially to the economical operation of the vessel.

TARIFF BY MARCH

The final discussions of the basis of assessing the import duties which are to be written into the new tariff bill are now in progress before the Senate finance committee. It is hoped by the members of the committee to reach a decision on this, the most important and difficult phase of the whole tariff problem, before the end of the week, and then the actual work of constructing the rates will be undertaken. The hope now is that the bill can be reported to the Senate around March.

"THE PEOPLE PAY"

The Akeley Herald-Tribune rightly says, "The people pay for strikes." And the Herald-Tribune adds: "If all the ill effects could be confined to the battling forces, it might be well to let them finish the job for good and forever, but under the existing conditions it would seem that there are ample grounds to pass Federal and state laws that would banish strikes for all time."

There have been many illustrations of the truth of the Herald-Tribune's conclusions.

Secretary Hoover says unemployment conditions throughout the country have grown worse since the first of the year, due to the seasonal dip in employment following the holidays. He thinks, however, that the present conditions should begin to let up in March, when improved conditions are expected.

The State of Minnesota did the largest business in its history during the year just closed, according to figures compiled by the state auditor. For the twelve calendar months ending Dec. 31, transactions involving $102,387,474.20 were entered in the books of the department.

It is announced that imports and exports are decreasing in Spain, Chairman Hull, of the Democratic National Committee, should send out a bulletin blaming it on the Republican administration.

GREAT MAN'S SON FORGOTTEN

Lafayette's Boy, Named for George Washington, Was Once a Refugee in This Country.

The Century company says that comments provoked by "Sword of Liberty," recently published by them, impressed them with the fact that the average American seems never to have heard of George Washington Lafayette. It seems strange that his story was not exploited during the wartime resurgence of enthusiasm about Lafayette and his noble friendship for this country; yet how many Americans know that Lafayette had a son named after his fast friend, General Washington, or that the boy was at one time a refugee in this country?

The story is part of the background of the account of two revolutions—American and French—contained in the book. Following the earlier phase of the French Revolution, during which Lafayette was so immensely popular, and after the hostility to his moderation had developed which drove him into exile, he sent his son to America, to the care of the American George Washington for whom he was named. It was his boy, according to the authors, Frank W. and Cortelle J. Hutchins, who, on returning from America, dug up from the garden of the Paris residence where they had been buried, the two swords given to Lafayette by the American congress and the French republic in recognition of his services in the two republics.

This Georges Washington Motier de Lafayette was born in 1779; he was therefore but thirteen when he fled to America in 1792 and his distinguished father to the neutral territory of Liege. —The Argonaut.

PARIS MUSICIAN LIKES JAZZ

M. Milhaud, Leader of Polytonic School, Says He May Some Time Compose Jazz Sonata.

Charles Henry Meltzer, well known music critic who has recently returned from a study of the modern European musical world, in an article in the December Forum called "The Polytonic Six of Paris," describes an interview with the much talked of Paris musician, M. Milhaud, as follows:

"Some day," M. Milhaud said, "I may compose a jazz sonata. The jazz form has been quite an inspiration. One may at times hear excellent music in the halls and much bad music is performed in concert rooms. I have told you of my love of melody. By this I mean that in my compositions I try to give equal importance to all the instruments I employ."

"My orchestra, of course, varies according to the nature of the works I write, and I have tried my hand at a good many styles. One form which I am fond of is the chamber symphony. I have turned out four examples of the sort so far, each scored for only a few solo instruments. I have published various piano compositions, among them a set of six which I grouped under the name of 'Le Printemps.' I have made scores for ballets with large orchestras and just now I am halfway through a tragic, lyric drama, named 'Les Eumenides.'"

Statistics indicate that married men are more trustworthy than single men in the ratio of 6 to 1, probably because of their increased sense of responsibility.

In China the deportment of dancers is regulated by a corps of young men with wands. When a couple "appear to mistake a dance for a honeymoon," the censor taps them gently on the shoulder to recall them to a sense of propriety. If they have to be thus reminded more than three times they are removed from the ballroom under escort.

DISABLED VETERANS FORM STATE UNIT

Brainerd Makes Best Showing to Secure Summer Camp of Veterans in Brainerd Vicinity

MAYOR LITTLE A SPEAKER

O. J. Bouma, of Chamber of Commerce and P. T. Brown, of Trades & Labor Assembly Also Spoke

The committee selected by the Chamber of Commerce to attend the convention of Disabled American Veterans of the World War returned on Sunday morning. The convention was held in the G. A. R. Memorial hall in the court house in Minneapolis.

After reaching the convention hall, the committee decided to put in a bid for the convention, although the main object of the trip was to secure the summer camp and they were defeated by only three votes for the convention. Hibbing secured the next convention.

The sentiment of the convention was strongly in favor of locating a state summer camp at or near Brainerd, but the matter is in the hands of the executive committee with instructions to report before March 15.

Mayor F. E. Little, in a most forceful way welcomed the Disabled Veterans to Brainerd and urged them to locate their summer camp on the shores of beautiful Gull lake.

Secretary O. J. Bouma of the Chamber of Commerce addressed the convention and said in part:

"Grand Commander and Veterans: I thank you for this privilege of telling you something about the great summer playground in the community from which I hail. The Indians called this Mille Lacs district the land of a thousand lakes and I do not think that the Indians exaggerated it as there are over 800, and as nature has a way of altering her pattern, no doubt when the Indians discovered this portion of the great state there were actually a thousand in number."

"As you drive through the wood along the shores of these lakes, crossing the thoroughfares which connect many of them and behold on all sides colorings of birch and pine, startling the partridge and prairie chicken by your intrusion, you will wonder at the audacity of the mere men who would have you spend your summer vacation in a man-made playground."

"When for $3 or $4 you can avail yourself of this summer paradise, not man-made but given to man by Almighty God, I repeat it is a privilege just to tell you of this summer playground of America. We are not here to urge you to come to our country in order that we may exploit you, but that you may enjoy with us air that has been kissed by the evergreens, drink deep draughts of water that is as pure as a drop of dew and that you may bathe in this water never polluted by man."

"You have answered the call to arms, you have suffered because of man's inhumanity to man and we feel an obligation to contribute all that nature has blessed us with in aiding to restore what you may have been deprived of because of war—physical health."

"You ask me, 'what are we to do to amuse ourselves?'"

"Can you imagine making voyages in a canoe, rowboat or launch day after day and discovering new lakes every trip? Have you ever caught fish until you wonder what you will do with all of them? How many of you have taken a new silk line guaranteed to hold a 20 pound fish and had some mighty pike or bass break it as though it were thread? Have you gone into the forest and gathered blueberries until you could not carry them back to camp, or eaten wild strawberries with your lunch? And when you were tired and your eyes very heavy with sleep, have you been lulled to sleep by the music of the wind playing on the boughs, the murmuring of the waters?"

"That's no amusement, that's real joy. I am not concerned about the action of this convention regarding the location of a summer camp, for I know that many of you when the warm spring rays are here will fill up the gasoline tank and Munch basket, point the nose of your Ford due north for that trip to God's country. Arriving about 3 p. m. of that day, you will come to the Chamber of Commerce."

Brainerd pool room was also granted.

$25 Voted

On motion of Aldermen Anderson and Cordes, carried, the request made to the council to appropriate $25 for the toboggan slide and skating rink was referred to the finance committee.

EARLE WILLIAMS

"The Silver Car" Has Several Spectacular Thrills in Which Star Does Clever Work

Earle Williams makes three daring leaps in "The Silver Car" which will be shown at the New Park theatre, for the last time tonight. In one of the early scenes he leaps from the rail of an ocean liner just as it leaves the Liverpool docks. He lands on the wharf uninjured.

Later the action calls for the star to leap from the bough of a tree on to the top of a moving limousine and on another occasion he is required to leap from a cliff into the harbor and swim to a Man o' War anchored close by.

Williams has always kept himself in trim. One of the requirements of a motion picture star is that he shall be a skilled, all-around athlete, and as Earle Williams believes that nothing can be written in a script that cannot be enacted in life, he finds it necessary to keep up his training. He is an accomplished high diver and the leaps were but child's play to him.

The story is one of action, suspense, mystery and thrills. There are several big spectacular scenes which will hold the audience intense. The narrative deals with the successful attempt to secure the copy of a treaty held by Count Michael Temesvar of Croatia. Several attempts have been made to secure this document and on each occasion the agent has been discovered and killed. One Anthony Trent, an adventurer, played by Earle Williams, seeks the privilege of getting the treaty. He engages as chauffeur of the silver car, in the service of the Count, and after many wild adventures, secures the treaty.

A pretty love story is interwoven in the plot. Part of the action takes place in England and several historic locations are shown in the film. It is one of scenic beauty as well as a story of intense dramatic interest and it should please the most exacting.

"The Great White Trail"

The cold stretches of the Yukon trail form much of the background of "The Great White Trail," the Wharton super-feature which is to be the attraction at the New Park theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. The story is that of a man and his wife and baby separated for years through misunderstanding, finally to be reunited in the cold stretches of the Arctic through the agency of a pair of baby shoes. Doris Kenyon, the youthful star of "The Empress," and "The Ocean Wail," appears as Prudence Ware, the young wife. Paul Gordon, Hans Robert, Thomas Holding, F. W. Stewart, Besse E. Wharton, Louise Hotelling and a big cast support her. The production is by The Whartons, who made "Patria," "The Exploits of Elaine," and other famous serials. "The Great White Trail" is in seven reels.

Nazimova and Valentino in "Camille" at the Lyceum

It is obvious why Nazimova is called "the incomparable." This brilliant actress' performance in "Camille," shown yesterday at the Lyceum Theatre, where it began a run of two days, evinces such a mastery of technique and emotional quality as makes her deserve the epithet to perform. Here she is at her best, and it is no exaggeration to say that in this picture she shows herself one of the greatest actresses of the screen.

In "Camille" Nazimova has done for the silver screen what Bernhardt, Eleanora Duse, Clara Morris, Olga Nethersole, and Ethel Barrymore did for the stage. These artists won fame for their interpretation of the role of "Camille." Nazimova, no less than they, has endowed the part with a charm and power.

Local picturegoers will not miss this picture. It is rarely that such a masterpiece is seen, seldom that a great drama and a great actress are united. And after seeing the picture, one easily understands the statement that it is one of the finest love stories of all times, and that the play still thrills and delights, seventy years after being produced in Paris.

Nazimova has the role of Camille.

the woman of the underworld, whom the love of a law student lifts to heights of devotion and sacrifice, and who returns to her showy, pitiful life upon learning that her sweetheart has abandoned his career for her sake.

New Curwood Picture at Lyceum Wednesday and Thursday

James Oliver Curwood has written many popular stories, but his best and most famous is "God's Country and the Law" which plays at the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. It is another of those thrilling stories of the great north woods.

Minnesota U Will Have Spring Training Says New Director

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 17.—Minnesota university will have a spring football training this year, according to Fred W. Luehering, newly elected director of the athletics of the Gopher institution. Luehering is in Chicago conferring with the officials of the institution and making plans to enter upon his duties. He will return to Nebraska to make its windup and will go to Minneapolis within a few weeks.

"I am determined we shall have a spring football training," Luehering told the United Press. A decision from the football coach will be made shortly.

While in Chicago, Luehering and President Coffman of the Minnesota University conferred with several candidates for football coach. No decision was made and the list of possible candidates was not given out.

"Plans have been made for a program of physical education in athletics," Luehering said. "These plans are so made as to bring returns to every student. I want to try and extend advantages to a larger number of students and will urge that each of the men students get into one of the fighting games, such as football, baseball, etc. Also, I will urge the students to take up at least one recreative game, such as volley ball, tennis, etc."

New French Premier Will Endorse Genoa Economic Conference

DISABLED VETERANS FORM STATE UNIT

Commerce and say, 'Booma, we're here! Show us!'

P. T. Brown, vice president of the Sixth District Federation of Labor, representing the Chamber of Commerce and organized labor, called the attention of the convention to the fact that there were no 'keep off the grass' signs around the lakes in Cro-Wing county and assured them that Brainerd was united in extending an invitation to the veterans to have their summer camp in that vicinity.

The Minneapolis Journal, in part said of the convention:

Organization of a Minnesota unit of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, ready to co-operate with other organizations in aiding the service man, and to stand on our own feet for our own good," was accomplished when the first annual convention of Minnesota veterans closed.

Hibbing and Brainerd fought for the next state convention, and Brainerd, St. Paul and other cities offered big inducements to get the proposed camp for disabled veterans. Mayor F. A. Little of Brainerd headed a delegation which offered 60 acres of lake shore line. The St. Paul delegation brought a guaranty of $10,000 from the St. Paul Community chest for building a rest camp in Ramsey county, conditioned upon the veterans' raising an additional fund estimated at $50,000. The sense of the meeting seemed in favor of the Brainerd proposal.

Duplication to be Avoided
M. W. Boyle of St. Paul, temporary state commander, introduced a resolution requiring the state commander to confer with commanders of other service men's organizations, to avoid duplication.

Declaring for expedition of care of disabled Canadian soldiers now in Minnesota, for payment of the state bonus to all residents of Minnesota who for six months prior to enlistment served with Allied armies, and urging care of service men until vocational training suffices to earn them a living, the resolutions urging a new policy in government handling of disabled cases.

Hospitalization of disabled Canadian veterans should be handled direct by the local Veterans bureau committee, en said.

WIFE HELPS ELECT HUBBY

"After having been in bed half the time for a year with severe pains in my right side over the appendix, stomach trouble and bloating, which the doctors seemed unable to reach with medicine, and advised operation as the only remedy, my nurse advised me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and its results have truly been wonderful as I am now entirely well and strong, and at the last election worked hard to elect my husband." FEMININE USE OF PROFANITY

Census Taken at Girls' Seminary Can not Be Taken as Positive of Iniquity.

It has long been the fashion at colleges and schools to take a census of graduating classes to determine such vital facts as these:

What is your favorite flower? How tall are you? Do you smoke? Are you a prohibitionist?

At a girls' seminary a recent inquiry was more sweeping. To the interrogation, "Do you swear?" 200 of the 215 girls answered yes.

But admitting that they swear is not proof that these feminine lips do utter oaths. So at least says the law in New York state, writes "Griant" in the Philadelphia Press.

"Four or five people must hear you swear, not a second or two, but for about five minutes—that's the law in North Carolina."

"Down in Alabama they don't expect a man to swear from the houseposts, but the law says that if three or four persons hear you just once, good-night!"

"In Tennessee it is not necessary to repeat the offensive words when a culprit is indicted for swearing."

"I saw on the veranda of a country club 17 women, of whom 12 were drinking an intoxicating liquor and seven were smoking cigarettes."

"But if that census at the girls' seminary is an index, more women swear than daily with John Barleycorn or Lady Nicotine."

JAKE WAS SEVEN CENTS OUT

Satisfied If It Was All Right, But the Situation Did Not Exactly Please Him.

The neighbors said that Jake Newton was strictly honest but "pretty snug."

One morning as he was having his sheep sheared he found that one of them was missing. "It must have jumped the fence and gone into Leslie's lot," he said to himself and immediately walked over to Leslie French's pasture, picked out a sheep that resembled him own and, after a tussle, got it home and had it sheared.

A few days later Jake discovered his missing sheep dead in his pasture. He lost no time in seeking his neighbor. With profuse apologies he returned the sheep and the fleece and explained the whole affair.

"Oh, that's all right, Jake," Leslie replied. "Don't let it trouble you a bit."

"You're sure it's all right?" Jake asked anxiously.

"Sure, sure, Jake. Anyone is likely to make a mistake."

Jake drew himself up. "Well, it ought to be all right. I had to pay seven cents to have that sheep sheared."—Youth's Companion.

Artist Works With Wood.
In the Vosges mountains there lives an artist named Spindler, who produces the most entrancing compositions not in paint, but in wood alone. First he makes the sketch, and then with infinite patience and care he cuts the veneer and glues it to a backing and then welds it all in a press. Since Mr. Spindler never uses anything except wood.

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Instant relief. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Frees the blood circulation, breaks up the congestion—and the old rheumatism torture is gone.

Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little at any drug store. Get a jar at once. Use it for lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, colds in chest. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package. Adv.

cept wood in its natural color, he has to know a great deal about trees. In his workshop he has pieces of every kind of wood found in Europe and many pieces from other countries. He pictures clouds, rain, and everything that an artist can picture with paints. Some of his veneer takes him hours of study and fitting, and some of it is as fine as a hair. Mr. Spindler has wood of every shade of yellow, red, brown, black and white. He has almost all the shades of green also, but he finds the blues hard to get.—Columbus Dispatch.

Colleges Take "Washer Boys."

The large laundries are beginning to revise their price lists in keeping with the return to "normalcy," says the New York Sun, but this doesn't apply to Mr. John Chinaman's laundry. He admits he is getting cheaper soap and cheaper starch, but he insists China boys to do the work are scarcer and higher than ever. Many of the Chinese youths are going to universities and absorbing some of the finer occidental arts, and turn up their noses at pushing a gas iron in a laundry. It's only the old Chinese that will wash clothes, and they work slowly.

So, says Lee Sing, until things get a little more normal and the younger Chinese drop some of their higher educational ideas, he can't see how a laundry ticket can be exchanged for less money.

The fires were incendiary, investigators believed.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLYTAKE TABLESPOONFUL OF SALTS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

At the time of said first meeting an immediate sale of the assets will be considered.
